

MINIMUS Training Day Application Form

Barbara Bell, the author of Minimus and Director of the Primary Latin Project will lead all the courses. The day includes an overview of the content & principles of both books and an update on the current issues facing the Primary Latin Project. In addition, teachers will share their experience of teaching Minimus & Minimus Secundus, both on and off the curriculum. The course is also suitable for Teaching Assistants and HLTAs.

Course description:

Beginners: This training course is for all those new to using Minimus. The course will include an overview of the content and principles of the book plus information on how the Primary Latin Project can support you in your teaching. We will explore how to teach Minimus in a club situation as well as on the timetable. These days are especially targeted at those new to Minimus teaching but everyone is welcome.
